
DARYL PAUSTIAN DEVELOPMENT SCHOLARSHIP

The EBOA's Daryl Paustian Development Scholarship recognizes officials that value the importance of personal growth and development in their officiating avocation by attending officiating camps each year.

This year the EBOA is offering up to four $250.00 scholarships to officials that have attended officiating camps in 2010.

Eligibility Criteria:

1. Attended an Officiating Camp in the current year;
2. Is a Member in good standing with the EBOA;
3. Member did not receive a development scholarship from EBOA in 2009.

EBOA Members meeting the above Eligibility Criteria are encouraged to apply by providing a minimum 300 word-essay on:

1. Why the applicant is deserving of receiving a Scholarship;
2. Key learnings from the camp(s) that will be used by the Official to improve their performance;
3. Personal officiating goals, both short term and long term.

Additional Information to be included with the application:

1. Name(s) of the camp(s) you attended;
2. Copy of 2010 camp receipt as proof of payment.

The Executive will announce the winners at the EBOA General Meeting in September.

Members are invited to send their application to president@theeboa.com no later than August 1st, 2010.

Daryl Paustian

Daryl Pasitan dedicated a lifetime to basketball officiating as an active member of the EBOA for over 30 years. He achieved success officiating provincially, nationally and internationally, in both able bodied and wheelchair basketball.

He served on the EBOA Executive for six years in a number of different capacities. He also served on the ABOA's Provincial Evaluation Committee since 1997, with a focus and commitment, to the development and education of officials.

Daryl passed away on August 15, 2009.
