

DIRECTOR: Administration, Mark Dzenick
TITLE: Report to the April 24, 2023 AGM
DATE: Report Dated April 7, 2023

EBOA 2021 - 2022 Awards

Given the timing of the 2022 AGM, Awards nominations were initiated by Brad Hollett, the past Director of Administration and then continued upon my appointment to the position.

The selection of award winners was made by the Executive, based upon the recommendation of the members making the nomination and the Education Committee.

The Award plaques were ordered from Elite Promotions at a significant discount from the price quoted by the previous supplier Columbia. Brad Hollett had initiated the quotations.

The Awards were presented at the 2022 Year-end Awards Banquet held May 29, 2022.

A list of Award winners was posted on the EBOA website at www.theebo.com/award-recipient

2021 - 2022 EBOA Scholarships and Bursaries

An application form was created and posted on the Home Page of the EBOA website. The deadline for submissions was August 20, 2022.

<https://www.theeboa.com/scholarships>

The applications were compiled and provided it to the EBOA President, Education Director, and the scholarship sponsors for review of the applications and selection of the scholarship recipients in accordance with the scholarship criteria.

The Scholarship Recipients were posted on the website: <https://www.theeboa.com/scholarships>

Daryl Paustian Development Scholarship – 2022 Recipient | Reihan Knish

Recognizes officials who value the importance of personal growth and development in their officiating avocation by attending officiating camps each year.

Background – Daryl Paustian dedicated a lifetime to basketball officiating as an active member of the EBOA for over 30 years. He achieved success officiating provincially, nationally and internationally, in both able bodied and wheelchair basketball. He served on the EBOA Executive for six years in a number of different capacities. He also served on the ABOA's Provincial Evaluation Committee with a focus and commitment to the development and education of officials. Daryl passed away on August 15, 2009.

Angie Celino Education and Development Scholarship – 2022 Recipient | Reihan Knish
Recognizes recognizes High School and Post-Secondary student officials who dedicate their officiating avocation to personal and community growth.

Background – Angie Celino embodied a legacy of relentless dedication and passion by officiating both Stand up and Wheelchair Basketball and for the Edmonton Basketball Officials Association. Through her tireless hard work and promotion of referees Angie became an ambassador for the EBOA. Those attributes were recognized within the basketball community. She was an ACAC official who contributed and committed to the mentoring and evaluation of officials to promote development and education of the EBOA and its officials. She lived a life that is an example of perseverance, determination and pride.

Dave Buffie Memorial Mentorship Scholarship – 2022 Recipient | Mara Dzenick
Aims to provide financial support to a younger official committed to their development.

Background – Dave Buffie was a long-time member of the EBOA and was widely respected across the province, having refereed at the U-Sports (CIS, CCAA), ACAC and High School levels for several years. "Whenever Dave walked into a gym to referee, everyone was reassured that the game would be in good hands and he would keep it safe, fair and fun."

The scholarship recipient was selected by the Buffie Family.

CBOC Ritchie/Nicurity Bursary –

The CBOC Ritchie/Nicurity Bursary awards $750 to promising young referees to assist in furthering their education. Information and details regarding the Bursary and the application process were posted on the EBOA website.

Reihen Knysh, Calvin Kha and Katia Davi-Digui were put forward to the ABOA as member candidates for the National CBOC Ritchie/Nicurity Bursary.

The screenshot shows the EBOA website with a navigation menu and a main content area. The navigation menu includes: HOME, ABOUT, EVENTS, EDUCATION, RULES, MEMBERS, AWARDS, SPOTLIGHT, and CONTACT US. The main content area features a section titled "Scholarship Applications" with a link to "Scholarship Policy (Adopted: March 21, 2023)" and a list of scholarships: Daryl Paustian Scholarship, Angie Celino Scholarship, and Dave Buffie Scholarship. Below this is a section titled "2022 Scholarship Recipients" listing: Daryl Paustian Development Scholarship – Reihan Knish, Angie Celino Education and Development Scholarship – Reihan Knish, Dave Buffie Memorial Mentorship Scholarship – Mara Dzenick, and National CBOC Ritchie/Nicurity Bursary Candidates – Reihan Knysh, Calvin Kha and Katia Davi-Digui put forward to the ABOA for nomination to CBOC.

- Interesting to note that the EBOA has about 300 active members and the EBOA website had 5,046 unique visitors during the past year (April 1, 2022 to March 31, 2023).
- The average amount of time spent is about 4 minutes 32 seconds per visit to the website
- “Page views peak according to schedule” – e.g. The “Matt Kallio” page had a huge spike following the Toronto Raptors exhibition game in Edmonton (October 2022); the “appointments” page peaks in the lead-up to the ASAA Provincials etc.
